Mrs. A. E. Zeigler, who has been visiting in the neighborhood for some weeks, returned to her home in Huntington Thursday.

PLUMVILLE PICKINGS.

What Our Good Friends Have Been Doing Since Our Last Report.

THE LEDGER is again a welcome visitor to our homes.

Plumville has about recovered from an epidemic of mumps.

Mr. Lee Weaver and Miss Glenn Elliott are ill with the mumps.

Mr. Morgan Silva has moved to H. Marshall's farm near Reckerville.

Master Wilson Davis is making his home with a Mr. Morgan at Aberdeen.

Master Almer Davis is quite ill with pneumonia. Dr. Hord is attending him.

Mr. Richard Gaither of Mayfield was a recent guest of relatives at Orchard Farm.

Mr. Julius Degman and cousin, Miss Flora Tully, were visitors at our Sunday-school Sunday a.m.

Miss Sarah King has moved to the farm she recently purchased. It is known as the Butcher farm.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jenkins have been enjoying a visit from Mr. Fred Bradley and family the past two weeks.

Miss Rena Mae Coryell is at home at Orchard Farm about two weeks spent very pleasantly with her cousins, the Misses Ray near Helena and the Misses Korman at Orangeburg.

The Republicans in this part of the county are warm friends of Dr. William Bowman, and will be ready to vote for him for whatever office he might aspire to. Some express their opinion that he ought to be nominated for Governor, and it goes without saying that he will be elected to whatever office he is nominated.

Mr. A. L. Redman partially lost the sight of his right eye about a month ago. He consulted Dr. Ellis of Maysville a few days later and he informed him that there was a cataract growing on his eye, and that it can be removed in the near future, after which his eyesight will be as good as it had been in the past. It has been erroneously reported that Mr. Redman was entirely blind.

Mr. Clydes Peiham Degman, aged 20 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Degman, at "Maplewood," near Springdale, Wednesday, March 22d, at 1:30 p.m. For over a year deceased had been a sufferer from bronchitis. Everything possible was done to check the ravages of the disease and to bring the flush of health back to the faded cheek, but all in vain. During his illness a devoted father and a loving mother watched over and attended to every want, making his last days on earth peaceful ones. Peiham was never heard to complain, but accepted his fate with the resignation of a true Christian boy, and when the Heavenly angel came to bear his spirit home he was found fully prepared and ready to meet his God. He was a courteous, Christian young man, truthful in his conversation and moral in his deportment, and with a strong intellect gave promise of a bright future filled with usefulness and honor. The pure and heartfelt sympathy of the whole community is extended to the bereaved family. May they meet and know each other beyond the river. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. White of Tollesboro at the family residence Friday, March 24th, at 2 p.m. The pall-bearers were Greeley and Julius Degman, brothers of deceased, and W. H. Tully, Arthur Tolle, Howard and Frank Williams, cousins of deceased. The remains were laid to rest in Bethany Cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

We will not mourn too much for you; God's will is always best; But 'tis so hard for one so true To leave our happy nest.

Cuts, wounds, burns, sprains and bruises quickly heal if you apply Ballard's Snow Liniment. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. H. D. Harkins of Chicago met Miss Katherine King of Ashland at Cincinnati Saturday afternoon and they were quietly married by Rev. H. G. Turney. They were anxious it should be kept secret, she returning to Ashland to resume her position as teacher in the city school and he to his business in Chicago.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

The John W. Ailes passed down with a tow of ten coalboats, which she turned over to the Boaz at Cincinnati. Ten boats is a pretty good-sized tow for a sixteen-inch cylinder boat, but then there's the pilot, you know. The Ailes passed up yesterday with a tow of empties.

THE YOUNG MEN.

What the Maysville Y. M. C. A. is Doing For Their Betterment.

All members of the gymnasium class are asked to meet for work this evening at the usual hour. Let all be present promptly, as considerable work must be done.

If the weather is agreeable the first run of the season will be made by the Y. M. C. A. Wheel Club this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The run will not be a long one, and all members are asked to join. Start to be made from the rooms. Captain, Will G. Heiser.

The Grand Carnival to be held at the Opera-house will be an opportunity for the people of Maysville to see every phase of physical culture. The development of the human body will be well illustrated, from the very fine and imposing drills and evolutions, such as the young ladies of Hayswood are so thoroughly instructed in through free hand and callisthenic work, light apparatus work, mat work, high grade apparatus work, tumbling, trick and fancy work. Men who stand high in their profession have been secured to present difficult high grade gymnastic and athletic work, tumbling and trick work. To vary the program and make it pleasing to all the Misses Henry of the Beethoven Concert Company have been secured to assist. The Cincinnati press says that "Miss Cora Mae Henry's playing on the violin was simply a revelation to the most critically inclined listener on account of her youth. Her performance is that of a finished artist."

Before the discovery of One Minute Cough Cure, Ministers were greatly disturbed by coughing congregations. No excuse for it now. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.
